

continue to offer tax exemptions in respect of capital gains on F&O trading. Accordingly, these new FPIs which are registered in these jurisdictions would need to comply with the GAAR (General anti-avoidance rule), MLI (multilateral instruments) and POEM (Place of Effective Management) regulations to avail the tax benefits," he said.

only for hedging the equity shares held by it, on a one-to-one basis. The said certificate is to be sent with the monthly p-notes report.

Experts say it would be easier for hedge funds based in European jurisdictions to register their own FPIs for derivative trades in India. This is because most European countries have tax treaties for foreign investors has been clarified, incentivising direct investments rather than a p-note route," said the senior official of an accounting firm, on condition of anonymity.

The share of p-notes as a percentage of overall FPIs in Indian markets has declined to four per cent, from over 50 per cent about a decade earlier.
